

GIVE THE BASICS

Providing basic necessities such as clean, new bedding for women and children who have experienced domestic violence is a rewarding way to support a family this holiday season. Your gifts are more than just presents under a tree – they represent the joy, hope and peace that every family deserves. Simply follow the steps below to get started.

1 Select your items.

Review the list below for our current, most-needed requests and decide what you'd like to purchase. You may buy as few or as many items as you like, but please make sure everything is brand new.

* Pots & Pan Sets

Every mom should have the ability to prepare a home-cooked meal for her family.

* Bedding (Queen-size Comforters)

Snuggling up in cozy, warm bedding at the end of the day is soothing and peaceful.

* Sleepwear

Wearing a new robe, slipper set or night shirt reminds her that she deserves comfort.

* Gift Cards

Gift cards are vital because they give our clients the power to choose how to use your gift when all choices have typically been stripped away. Increments of up to $25 are preferred. If you feel moved to donate more than $25, please break the amount into multiple cards of $25 or less so we can ensure all clients receive equal gifts this season. Most requested gift cards include Target, Walmart, Game Stop, TJ Maxx, Burlington Coat Factory and fast food restaurants such as McDonalds or Taco Bell. Gas and Visa gift cards are especially useful because they help our clients reclaim their independence.

3 Make your purchases!

You will need to schedule your gift drop-off as soon as possible. Delayed scheduling means that families may not receive their gifts in time for the holidays, so please email holiday@genesisshelter.org or call 469.986.7203 at your earliest convenience to schedule your gift drop-off date and time.
